CLOWN AND HELPING HAND MINISTRY

Last Wednesday night, the Knights went out to feed and clothe more than 50 needy and homeless. Some of them are veterans. They are so grateful to our volunteers for helping not only with food and clothing, but making them feel like they are special. A big thank you to our Wednesday cooks who prepare the hot meals and all our volunteers who help stock the van with food and clothes. Many of our volunteers work full-time jobs then give four to five hours of their time to take care of God's most needy people. This past Saturday morning, a group went to Saint Vitus parish to feed the needy and homeless in that area. God has blessed us with so many giving and loving people. Thank you..Thank you!! God Bless all of you. I also, would like to thank everyone for all the kind birthday wishes and gifts. Remember God is good all the time....all the time God is good. Deacon Joe.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

ATTENTION HOLY NAME MEMBERS: There will be NO general meeting in September. We will resume our normal monthly meetings on October 5th in the Parish Life Center. Board members will meet on September 12th at a location to be determined. Thank you for all your patience. Continue to have a blessed summer.

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time: Be opened! That's Jesus' commandment to the deaf man in the Gospel today. We even hear the original Aramaic word – it is that important that Mark preserved some of the original phrases of Jesus Christ. For those of us who struggle “to hear,” what a great opportunity for us to hear that God is challenging us to something new. We need to listen.

Ministry to the Homebound – Communion of the Sick: One of the reasons I give a short synopsis in the bulletin each week is for our homebound ministry. Many of our parishioners are not able to come to church, so each week we place certain items in the bulletin to make everyone feel connected to the parish. I feel that our homebound parishioners have an important ministry of prayer - they pray for our parish all the time! We are grateful for their continued commitment of service and care for all of us. I appreciate the notes I receive and their constant stewardship of time, talent and treasure, for they are always so diligent about sharing their tithing with the LORD and our parish.

Why We Do What We Do at Mass: Part 7: This leads me to reflect on what Bishop Lennon asked each parish to do 6 years ago, at the same time I was installed as pastor at SPB: Commission the Ministers to the Homebound at the End of the Communion Rite. I have been saddened to hear that not all parishes implemented this special part of the Mass that bishops across the country, requested. When we call forward the Communion Ministers who are going to the homebound, hospice, nursing homes and hospitals, we share with them the Eucharist, bless them and send them forth to minister. This is an important reminder that our “communion” just does not just stay here, but goes out and ministers to those in need. This has always been part of the church's ministry, for we have read about it in the Acts of the Apostles and other early church documents. If you need a pyx, we have some to borrow if someone in your family becomes ill and needs this ministry. You come forward with your pyx (it's always nice and helpful when you let the priest know who you are ministering to this Sunday and/or weekday.) Then you minister to those in need, sharing the Word of God, at least the reading of the Gospel with the other person, praying for the intercessions of the church, reciting the LORD's Prayer and “Behold the Lamb of God,” and sharing communion, meditation time, a prayer or song or two. We have a special blue ritual book in the sacristy if you would like one for this ministry.

Furthermore, if you would like to serve other families that are in need, please contact Nancy Rufo who coordinates this ministry for us: Nrufo1@gmail.com.

Special THANKS This Week! As someone recently mentioned to me when they went to a different Mass time, “I didn't know we had such musical talent at our parish.” Here's our normal groups at each of the weekend Masses for music – for we thank them for their dedication and care!

- 4:30 p.m. Saturday: The Parrotta and Gressley Families, Jon Anderson, Neil Brofman and Sister Angela Salazar, SND on violin.
- 8:00 a.m. Sunday: Roberta Modica and the Kramer Family (piano, organ and other instruments depending on the song).
- 10:00 a.m. Sunday: Adult Choir.
- 12:00 Noon Sunday: Young Adult Choir.
- 7:00 p.m. Sunday: Teen Choir.

FROM THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE...continued

See Julie Parrotta, our music/liturgist minister to share your musical talents – from voice to an instrument – you are always welcome to share your gifts! Worship is a team effort – we can't do it without you! Let's continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas J. Lane, SSS, Class of 1979

Pastor

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

WHAT IS BEREAVEMENT? Someone you love very dearly has died and the pain, sadness and confusion seem too great for any words to mean anything. Even life itself can seem hollow and meaningless and yet, everything becomes new again. The one who suffers this loss is the mourner who must travel through the phases of grief. Working through grief is hard work, accomplished over a period of time and made easier when shared with others. The Saint Paschal/Saint Clare Bereavement Support Group can help. WALKING IN HOPE-A BEREAVMENT SUPPORT GROUP – Each of us grieves the loss of a loved one in a different way; yet, many experiences are common to all. We will meet in the SPB rectory parlor from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in a relaxed atmosphere with guest speakers, support materials and refreshments.
