PASTORAL COUNCIL CORNER

On the first Monday of June, Council met for a potluck picnic and a brief business meeting to end the fiscal year. Amid clouds of fragrant smoke, Fr. Lane presided as host and grillmaster. The many great contributions made for a delightful shared meal.

The business portion included farewells and thanks to three wonderful members whose Council terms are completed: Joe McCormack, chairperson, Kay Vincent, recording secretary and Moira Popelka, SPB School faculty representative. Their faithful service and great contributions of time and effort to the parish are truly appreciated and will be missed. We also welcomed a new member, Bill Horvath, coming to Council from the Finance Commission.

Two finance related items were discussed:

- The Spring Fling was very successful, due to the excellent planning and work of the committee: bills are still being paid, and a full report will be published in the Bulletin, but the final profit may be as much as $10,000 more than last year!
- The SPB School finances and budget for the new fiscal year are in such good shape that the usual subsidy from the parish will not be needed!

Finally, Fr. Lane has been approached by representatives of the Legion of Mary, a national Catholic Marian organization, asking if there are parishioners interested in establishing a chapter here. If you are interested in working to bring the Legion of Mary here, please contact Fr. Lane.

Next Pastoral Council Meeting: Watch the Bulletin for the date of the August meeting.

CLOWN/HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

The Clown and Helping Hands Ministry has been helping the homeless, not only on the streets but also people who have a roof over their heads but barely anything else. There are many people who live at Villa Serena who need our help. Villa Serena is a part of a government project called HUD. Many who live there are in need of daily meals. There is a woman who has to buy cancer medications that aren't covered by insurance. In order to pay for the pills she often goes without eating. When I have brought Meals on Wheels to people there I have learned they plan to stretch the single meal out to use for several days. Not all the residents of Villa Serena are in this situation, but thank goodness we have volunteers helping those at the Villa who do need our help. We continue to do what Pope Francis has asked of the Church in this Year of Mercy by reaching out to those in need. Thank you for your prayers and support.

GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME. ALL THE TIME GOD IS GOOD.

P.S. We are in need of toilet paper and canned goods. Also, if you need a handyman who also paints, contact Deacon Joe at 440-442-3410 ext. 108.

YOUTH MINISTRY

This week we are excited about our seventh annual Bible Camp. Our theme this year is Anchors Away With Christ, where we are going to be learning about what it takes to be a follower of Jesus, how we need to anchor ourselves to Him, what are the keys to heaven, and where our treasure is there is our heart. We have our biggest camp yet, with over 110 participants and close to 60 volunteers. We are so excited and can't wait to share our experiences at our amazing camp. Please keep our campers and volunteers in your prayers this week. Thank you to all those who celebrated summer with us at our pool party at Lyndhurst Pool. We are looking forward to our next outing on July 8 to Fun 'n' Stuff. For more information please contact Mrs. Mickol at emickol@saintpaschal.com.

13th Sunday in Ordinary

Time: We begin the second part of the call to “take up our cross daily and follow Christ.” Jesus is following his path and his followers are trying to be helpful. Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, goes from place to place and foreign lands, inviting others to the same journey. This is our journey and we are encouraged, as always, to stay faithful to the path.

Attend the Year of Mercy Convocation: A special flyer is in the bulletin – please make a special retreat as part of your Year of Mercy devotion and enjoy this special weekend.

Pope Francis has awakened our vocation to be of service, especially in this Year of Mercy. We participate well in the corporal works of mercy, but here’s a look at the spiritual ones to work on these this summer:

1. Council the Doubtful: Encourage members of your family to belief, to love God and their faith. There are so many things we cannot see for sure – just look at how we try to see into our bodies and experiment with healing and surgeries, etc. Faith helps us deal with our doubts.
2. Instruct the Ignorant: Of course one could also become a PSR Catechist- but we need not look any further than ourselves and families. Look into the Catechism of the Catholic Church or good web searches to stay current and knowledgeable about the faith and the church.
3. Admonish Sinners: This is a tricky one – for we know how some may come off as “holier than thou.” Gently, we are called to correct one another – in love. Sometimes we have to say through our own witness how we learned, “God would forgive us for ...” Encourage folks to avail themselves to the sacrament of reconciliation and share how you enjoy the benefit of this sacrament and the grace that assists you in living a better life.
4. Comfort the Afflicted: Support one another through your presence, a call, visit, email or text.
5. Forgive the Sinner: Find this one hard? Bring this person to be your intention for Mass. When you see the priest break the bread during the Fraction Rite, allow God’s love to break through into your heart and the other person’s heart so that God’s love and presence will assist you in the healing process.

6. Bear Wrongs Patiently: Rather than telling everyone over and over again what happened and who erred, just be silent. The LORD knows – that’s all that matters. Again, silence can be golden and bring us peace rather than stirring up the heart over and over.
7. Pray for the Living and the Dead: Not only when we wake or go to sleep should we pray, but at other special times of the time. Join in the “official” praying times of the church, with the Blessed Sacrament Community for Morning Prayer – when we join in the praise and prayers for the living and the day or Evening Prayer – when we pray in thanks for the day and remember those who have died. We live in a special communion with heaven and earth: come and pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament once a week, for a special 15, 30 or 60 minute time of living this “communion” between heaven and earth in the real presence of Christ.

Teen Choir Still Sings in the Summer: Many things wind down for the summer, but, if your life is like mine, “it’s just getting started,” and the song “ain’t” true: Summertime and the living is Easy! There is even more things to do in the summer!

One of the joys of my life is playing and singing with our Teen Choir. Just a note that our Youth Group Teen Choir will continue to sing each Sunday at the 7 p.m. Mass. We are blessed to have a dedicated group of singers- - more are always welcome! Join in the practice before Mass, starting at 6:15 in the music area. Roberta and I will be rotating as keyboardists for the summer months.

Announcements for Mass? Remember, this week Roberta Modica (our long time accompanist and director of the new 8 a.m. Choir Ensemble) will be writing and editing our petitions and announcements for Mass. If you have something to announce or pray for during the Mass, please let her know at <robertamodica@juno.com>.

See you Sunday at Mass - and keep up the great work! Bring a friend or two, tell them about our parish and share the Good News being lived out here at SPB. Let us continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, '79
Pastor
