GUEST COLUMN-FR. JOHN CHRITSMAN, SSS

By now you have undoubtedly seen the large red banner in the sanctuary. Brother Gary has made this and all of the other signs throughout the property announcing our religious gathering around the theme, “The Gift of Self in the Year of Mercy.” Next weekend there will be a series of talks and liturgies here at Saint Paschal’s that will explore these important ideas.

The occasion for this gathering is the anniversary of Saint Peter Julian Eymard’s deep spiritual insight, “the gift of self.” After many years of prayer and contemplation Father Eymard developed a unique spirituality. He loved God so much, and so strongly desired to give himself completely to God, that he wanted to give something more. Beyond the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience he wanted to give something even more meaningful to God. He wanted to give his very self to God. He called this spiritual gift, “the gift of self.”

Of course as we well know as Christians the greatest thing we are called to do is to love God and to love our neighbor (Mark 12:30-31, Luke 10:27). Therefore, giving the gift of ourselves to God also implies giving the gift of ourselves to our neighbor. This Father Eymard understood completely as he gave his life to the service of God, his religious community and the people of France where he lived. Father Eymard’s insight teaches us that there are opportunities to give the gift of ourselves every day and in all of our encounters. We can give the gift of ourselves to help family and friends, to avoid unnecessary conflicts and to be charitable to those in need.

In the document that announced the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Misericordiae Vultus, Pope Francis makes this connection between giving of ourselves and the importance of mercy. In fact he even uses the phrase, “gift of oneself.” He writes, “The Church’s first truth is the love of Christ. The Church makes herself a servant of this love and mediates it to all people: a love that forgives and expresses itself in the gift of oneself. Consequently, wherever the Church is present, the mercy of the Father must be evident. In our parishes, communities, associations and movements, in a word, wherever there are Christians, everyone should find an oasis of mercy (MV §12).”

This is such a timely message in our world today. Our world definitely needs God’s love and mercy. And we can bring those gifts to our world and the people we encounter in the “gift of ourselves.”

FROM THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

Due to the Independence Day holiday and vacation, this bulletin column and inserts were created July 3.

Special Weekend & Week Ahead: But, before we get to this, here are some special announcements to highlight, mark your calendar, register and know:

Sr. Angela Marie Salazar, SND: We have been blessed by the presence and talents of Sr. Angela for many years, sharing her musical gifts by playing the violin, usually at the 4:30 p.m. Mass, but also at Taizé Prayer services or other celebrations. As many of you know, there are a few years of formation to becoming a sister or a nun, similar to becoming a priest, deacon or brother. The last step is profession of “final” or “perpetual” vows. She will be publicly proclaiming them on Sunday, August 7 at 10:30 a.m. at the Sisters of Notre Dame headquarters in Munson (Chardon). The night before, we will have a special “Rite of Sending,” to affirm and support Sr. Angela in her vocation and commitment as a SND. Join in this SPB service, Saturday, August 6 at the 4:30 Mass, the SPB’s regular Mass time.

Legion of Mary – Meeting 6:00 p.m. On Monday, August 15, 2016: A few weeks back I put out a request to see if there was interest in forming a Legion of Mary group here at SPB. A few parishioners did express interest. Let’s have an organization meeting, Monday, August 15 – on the solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary! We will meet in the Sr. Dorothy Kazel Room in the parish offices. Please park in the horseshoe lot – and then you are welcome to join in the 7:00 p.m. Mass.

Summer Recruitment Time for Liturgical Ministries: It’s time for you to join with me and invite women and men to serve as lectors, ushers, communion ministers and altar servers. We will train and help them feel comfortable in these ministries! See the special altar server schedule elsewhere in the bulletin.

Becoming Catholic: It’s time to start encouraging women and men to join our faith and let them know that another year of sessions/formation to become Catholic is beginning Thursday, September 15, 6:00 p.m. on the parish deck, outside the pastor’s office. We will have a special cookout with last year’s neophytes, those who were baptized on March 26. Come with questions for this inquiry social.

Leadership Day – Rev. Paul Turner: All parish leaders, communion ministers, lectors, ushers and others interested, are invited to attend a special “retreat night.”

Tuesday, September 20, 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. in church. Fr. Turner is an incredibly gifted writer and speaker who practically writes a book every other month, he is that prolific! His latest award winning book is, “Whose Mass is it Anyway?” He will be our special speaker, with other parishioners coming from other sponsoring parishes in the area. He’s that good! Please call the parish office to register – for it is free, but we wish to know how many will attend to have materials and prepare for the reception, sponsored by the OLBS Ladies Guild.

Prayers for the SAINT ANN TRIDUUM: We are grateful for Fr. John Keenan, SSS’s presence and presiding for the Saint Ann Triduum, the next few nights. Join with us – or at least keep us and those we will minister to in your prayers.

Convocation for the Year of Mercy this Week: Next weekend is a big weekend for us with our special event for the Year of Mercy. Please keep this event in your prayers and hopefully you will be able to attend a few parts of the event. We welcome the special guests and visitors who will be attending from around the country, especially our Aggregation of the Blessed Sacrament (Lay Associates) who are a special part of our Eymardian Family.

Let us continue to pray for each other!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, ‘79
8th Pastor – in year 8 of our pastorate!

CLOWN/HELPING HANDS MINISTRY

My family has had a place in Maine for 35 years that was mostly used by my brother and when he died we decided to sell it. There were a few offers on the house. One offer came from a nice, young couple who were only able to afford a certain amount. My family and I decided to sell to them for a little less because they seemed so right for the house. This couple was very excited and honored to own a home where a priest had lived. Guess what? They had a dog whose name was Louis, the same name as my brother! We were convinced it was divine intervention that this couple became the new owners. My family is known in the area for their generosity and faithfulness and we always keep God as our leader. This is what our Helping Hands Ministry does also and I am so grateful to all the volunteers who keep this ministry going.
GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME, ALL THE TIME GOD IS GOOD.

Deacon Joe

P.S. We need canned goods. Also, if you are looking for a handy man or painter, contact me at 440-442-3400 ext. 108.
